United 332

GENERAL INFORMATION:

United 332 is designed to maintain clean heat transfer surfaces and extend the life of cooling system components by protecting them against scale, corrosion and silt deposition. Regular use of United 332 as part of a complete treatment program will keep your cooling system operating cleanly and efficiently.

United 332 is Earth Smart® certified. Used as part of a United Laboratories Cycle Smart™ cooling tower treatment program, it guarantees that your employees are using safer products that will have minimal environmental impact.

United 332 may be used in:

- Cooling Towers
- Evaporative Condensers
- Shell and Tube Heat Exchangers
- Air Washers
- Diesel Engine Cooling Systems

United 332 is low in toxicity and is nonpolluting. A complete Cycle Smart™ program for an open, evaporative cooling system will combine United 332 with a suitable biocide and biodispersant program.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE:

A feed and control package that combines a high quality tower controller with accurate chemical injection pumps should always be used when feeding United 332 in order to ensure that the program is operated at the maximum efficiency possible. Your United Laboratories will recommend the most cost-effective package for your facility.

DOSAGE INFORMATION: Your United Laboratories representative will make recommendations on the dosage required at your facility. The level of United 332 present in your system water can be determined by analysis using the United WT917 test kit. Regular monitoring of program parameters should be made to ensure optimal performance.
